

Call for Nominations: Christine Beattie Award

Dear Zebrafish Community,

The International Zebrafish Society (IZFS) is pleased to announce the call for nominations for our junior member award – The Christine Beattie Award. IZFS members who are postdoctoral fellows in their first three years of training or graduate students who are about to start their third year (or greater) of graduate school are invited to self-nominate or be nominated by their advisors by May 26, 2021. Awardees will be recognized and receive a free registration for the upcoming International Zebrafish Conference \(IZFC\) on June 16-22, 2021.

About the Award

The Christine Beattie Award recognizes one junior investigator each year who demonstrates excellence in the field of zebrafish research and exhibits promise as a future leader in the zebrafish field. This award further recognizes the commitment that Dr. Christine Beattie had to training the next generation.

Among the criteria that may be considered:

- Must have submitted an abstract for an oral or poster presentation for the International Zebrafish Conference (IZFC).
- Special consideration given to trainees doing research in developmental neurobiology and/or neuromuscular disease.

Application

Nominations should be submitted by email with the subject line “Christine Beattie Award” to IZFS Administrative and Development Manager, Eli Rehorst, at erehorst@izfs.org. IZFS members may self-nominate for this award. The email should include a single PDF file that contains:

1. Cover letter (1 page or less)
2. CV
3. Submitted abstract
4. Letter of recommendation from current advisor

We hope you will consider submitting a nomination and attend the upcoming 2021 IZFC.

Best Wishes,
